

Research Associate (m/f)

Job ID	Job level	Functional area	Working time	Location
IR-0003	Career starters, graduates & professionally experienced	Research & Development	Full-time	Muthgasse 11, 1190 Wien

OncoOne is a biotech start-up dedicated to the development of innovative therapeutics to treat patients with solid tumors. OncoOne is an equal opportunity employer who maintains a diverse and inclusive culture.

We are seeking a highly motivated and creative research associate to assist in the development of cancer therapeutics within the Internal Research Group in our Laboratories at Muthgasse 11, Vienna.

Duties & Responsibilities

- Implementation and execution of biochemical and immunological assays
 - ELISA, FACS, immunofluorescence and microscopy
 - SDS PAGE and Western Blot
 - Affinity determination using surface plasmon resonance (SPR) or Bio-layer interferometry (BLI)
- Protein expression and purification
- Working with cell cultures:
 - Cultivation of mammalian cells
 - In vitro characterization of drug substances in cell-based assays
- Documentation according to GDP
- Self-reliant execution of experiments
- Analysis and compilation of scientific data

Requirements

- BSc/MSc in Life Sciences, or VET college (HTL) with a focus on biology/biochemistry
- Working experience in a biochemical laboratory or in pharmaceutical research is an advantage
- Working experience in oncology research is an advantage
- Excellent team spirit, communication and presentation skills
- Fluent in English
- Good computer skills

We offer an adequate salary which considers professional and personal skills as well as professional experience. The base pay is according to the Austrian collective agreement (Gewerbe und Handwerk) is € 26,389.86 gross per year (full-time) for this position, whereby an overpayment is possible.

Contact

office@oncoone.com