

Laboratory Technician (Stable Isotope Analysis)(G4)

The Soil and Water Management and Crop Nutrition Laboratory (Joint FAO/IAEA Division of Nuclear Techniques in Food and Agriculture) is looking for a Laboratory Technician who will carry out the operation, servicing and repair of stable isotope analysis equipment for the determination of ^{15}N , ^{13}C , ^{18}O and D, in soil, water, plant and greenhouse gas samples for research and development, coordinated research projects (CRPs) and technical cooperation projects (TCPs). The Laboratory Technician will also provide support to training work of the Soil and Water Management and Crop Nutrition Laboratory.

Qualifications, Experience and Language skills

- Completed secondary education. Certified training in a technical area with emphasis on analytical chemistry an asset.
- Minimum four years of relevant working experience in analytical laboratories.
- Some experience in the use of isotope ratio mass spectrometry or laser isotope measurements an asset.
- Good oral and written command of English.

You can find more information and the link to apply online at https://iaea.taleo.net/careersection/ex/jobdetail.ftl?job=2020/0425\(080337\)&tz=GMT%2B02%3A00&tzname=&tz=GMT%2B02%3A00&tzname=)

Application deadline: 8 October 2020

Start your application today and join our diverse and multicultural team.

The IAEA offers an attractive remuneration package including a tax-free salary, 6 weeks annual vacation, pension plan and health insurance.

Please note that applicants are required to apply online, no e-mail or hard-copy application will be accepted.